PRESENTS

IN HOC SIGNO VINCES
CONSTANTINE THE GREAT
CONVERTING THE WORLD TO CHRIST

In the year 312, after three centuries of Christian persecution, the newly proclaimed emperor prepared himself to conquer the ancient city of Rome. What happened next would alter the course of history forever. Join the Institute of Catholic Culture and Professor Brendan McGuire for this two-part series on the conversion of the first Christian Emperor and the establishment of the reign of Christ on earth.
