Fr. Paul Scalia & Dn. Barry Levy

Fr. Paul Scalia is Pastor at Saint John the Beloved Catholic Church in McLean, Virginia. He received a Master of Arts degree from the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Angelicum, in Rome in 1996 and was ordained a Priest for the Diocese of Arlington the same year. Fr. Scalia has published articles in various periodicals including This Rock, First Things, and Human Life Review, and is currently serving as Chaplain for the Arlington Diocese Courage Chapter.

Deacon Bary Levy received an M.A. in Theology from St. John's University in 1982, and a Masters Degree in Social Work from the University of Maryland in 1987. He was ordained a deacon in 2010 and serves at St. Mary's Church in Rockville, Maryland. Mr. Levy is the Director of the Meier Clinics in Rockville and has 23 years of clinical experience helping men, women, adolescents, couples and families heal from numerous mental health conditions, marital distress, trauma, and addictive disorders. Mr. Levy specializes in treating unwanted same sex attractions by combining the best of biblically-based counseling with the most up-to-date psychological and brain based interventions.
