POPE BENEDICT XVI & POPE CELESTINE V THE SCANDAL OF SECULARISM

On April 29, 2009, P. Benedict XVI placed his own pallium, the sign of his Episcopal authority, on the tomb of Pope Celestine V, the only man to ever abdicate the throne of Peter and the last pope of that name. On that occasion, P. Benedict announced the "Year of P. Celestine" which will conclude on August 29, 2010. Why? Join Dr. Robert Moynihan & the Institute of Catholic Culture for this unique look at the life of two Popes and two ages, both of which are in battle for the life of the Church in the face of the onslaught of humanistic secularism.
